8:30 -13:30 eIFL Programs: Consortium building: Impact assessment, advocacy, sustainability workshop
David Fuegi, Monika Segbert, Teresa Hackett

11:00-11:15 Coffee break

In this very practical workshop we want to look at the information and tools already available or easily accessible to help show the effect or impact that eIFL as a whole and its individual consortia are having. Inspired by the achievements of other eIFL consortia and supported by input from eIFL centrally, by the end of the workshop you will be confidently planning how to collect and use the impact data that will most influence your members and other stakeholders to support you more strongly.

13:30 - 14:30 Lunch

14:30 - 17:30 Indexing, Digitization and Union catalogues through Google Scholar
Anurag Acharya

Coffee break in the middle

We will describe the current status and recent updates for Google Scholar. We will also describe the various ways in which Google Scholar and eIFL countries are working together. Finally, we will have an interactive session where we explore the issues, experiences and opportunities for further cooperation. In this session, we will be joined by several country coordinators.
