ABOUT THE AGREEMENT

TYPE: HYBRID, FULLY OPEN ACCESS

SUBJECTS: HUMANITIES, LAW, LIFE SCIENCES, SOCIAL SCIENCES

PUBLISHER/VENDOR: BRILL

AGREEMENT TERM: 31 DEC 2023

OVERVIEW

EIFL has negotiated waived or discounted Article Processing Charges (APCs) for authors from EIFL partner countries when they publish in a Brill fully Open Access or hybrid journal.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

The agreement is valid for Brill fully open access and hybrid titles.

Below are the agreed terms:

- Waived article processing charges - no fees for corresponding authors from: Congo, Ethiopia, Ghana, Ivory Coast, Kenya, Kyrgyzstan, Laos, Lesotho, Malawi, Moldova, Myanmar, Nepal, Senegal, Sudan, Tanzania, Uganda, Zambia, Zimbabwe
- 80% discount for corresponding authors from: Botswana, Namibia
- 60% discount for corresponding authors from: Albania, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Fiji, Georgia, Kosovo, Latvia,

Lithuania, Maldives, North Macedonia, Palestine, Thailand, Ukraine, Uzbekistan

- 50% discount for corresponding authors from: Estonia, Serbia, Slovenia

How to claim waivers

This discount cannot be combined with any other, such as Society discounts, promotional discounts or prepaid order discounts. If the author is entitled to or claims multiple discounts, the highest single discount will be applied.

HOW DOES IT WORK

The waiver or discount is automatically applied as SAGE's system will automatically recognise eligible author's affiliation to eligible countries. Once the paper has been accepted for publication, authors are sent to the acceptance and payment page, where they accept the publisher's terms & conditions, and review their payment information which will automatically show the discounted or waived APC - provided the conditions are met.

If the waiver or discount has not been applied, please email APCqueries@sagepub.com and the SAGE team will correct the amount.

HOW DO I KNOW THE EXACT COST OF THE DISCOUNTED APC?

You can check the full list price APC on each journal's website. This title list includes a URL for each journal. On the journal website, click on the link for "Submit Paper" and then "Article Processing Charges". You will need to calculate a 20% discount.

In case you find a reduced APC price on the journal website (a promotional discount) which is higher than 20%, then you should use the promotional discount and not the EIFL discount.

HOW CAN I FIND JOURNALS THAT ARE INCLUDED IN THE OFFER?

You can view the title list here and browse it by subject. The title list also includes journals that do not charge any Article Processing Charges. This title list will be updated twice a year, no later than 31st July and 31st January each year. The current list was confirmed on 12th August 2020.
